

Wrentham Conservation Commission

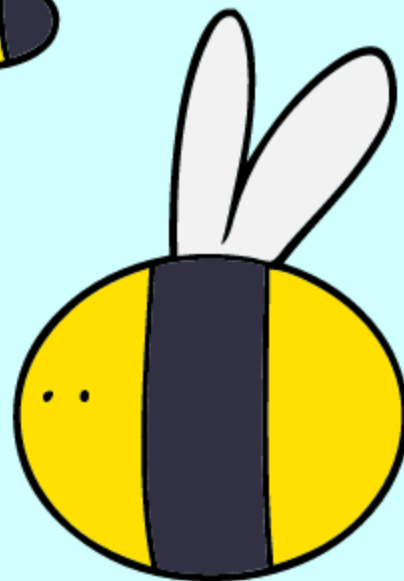

invites you to

Join us for "No Mow May"

WHY?

Not mowing in May gives pollinators wintering underground a critical first meal of the spring - dandelions, clover, or other early bloomers.*

Unmowed lawns in May = as many as 5x the number of bees!*

*Source: Homegrown National Park